Biography

Andrew Sullivan received his bachelor's degree in Accounting, summa cum laude, from Louisiana Tech University. Upon graduating, he moved to New Orleans to attend Loyola University New Orleans College of Law where he served as a Senior Editor of the Loyola Law Review, was a William L. Crowe Scholar, and received the Law Excellence Award in Advanced Federal Income Tax and Taxation of Corporations. Andrew enhanced his tax and business law knowledge by obtaining an LL.M. in Taxation from New York University.

Andrew's practice is focused primarily on mergers and acquisitions, business planning, estate planning and other transactional matters, with an emphasis on federal and state taxation. His practice centers around helping clients achieve their business and estate planning goals in a tax-efficient manner.

Andrew is a board-certified tax law specialist, as certified by the Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization. He has been recognized by Louisiana Super Lawyers and New Orleans Magazine for his work in tax law, and by Best Lawyers in America for his work in business organizations (including LLCs and partnerships), corporate law, tax law, and trusts & estates.

Andrew enjoys spending time with his wife and kids. He is also a fan of live music and football.
